

FOUR CHAPLAINS MEMORIALS FOUND AROUND THE WORLD

Four Chaplains Memorials can be found across the United States, including this one, designed by Constantino Nivola and dedicated in 1955, at National Memorial Park in Falls Church, Virginia. (Army Historical Foundation)

Others:

- Bronze statue of Angel/Four Chaplains at St. Stephen's Church, Kearny, NJ
- SS Dorchester Memorial in Dorchester, Wisconsin
- A large wall mural of the Four Chaplains downtown York, Pennsylvania and inside the local Goode Middle School lobby
- Four Chaplains Monument at Belmont Racetrack
- The Four Chaplains Monument, Arbor Crest Cemetery, Ann Arbor, Michigan
- Four Chaplains Monument, Sabastian, Florida
- Stained glass window Set 4, Fort Snelling Memorial Chapel
- Stained glass window U.S. Army Chaplain Center and School.
- Four Chaplains display in the U.S. Army Chaplain Center and School Chaplain Corps Museum (holds the original Medal of Heroism awarded to CH (LT) John P. Washington
- The Four Chaplains sculpture, VA Hospital, Albuquerque, New Mexico
- For Heroic Chaplains, Newport News, Virginia
- A Monument sign on the "tip land" of Wreaths Across America", Columbia Falls, Maine
- Stained glass window at the Pentagon Chapel
- Memorial plaque in Nassau County, Long Island, New York
- Chaplains plaque on the sides of the pulpit, Chateau Thierry Church, Picardie, France
- Stained glass window in the National Cathedral, Washington DC
- The Historic Lincoln Way Viaduct – rededicated as the Four Chaplains Memorial Viaduct, Massillon, Ohio
- Four Chaplains plaque located on Fort Wadsworth, Staten Island, New York
- If you know of a Four Chaplains Monument, please send a picture and description to chapel@fourchaplains.org